Fill in the blank spaces

We have reached the point in most of the European Leagues with many of the clubs realising that the next 15 or so games could make or their season. Having been unable to make since the end of August they now have a chance to bring in new players to help them push for the title, attempt to qualify for Europe, or to avoid being to a lower division. Gossip and rumour are rife: yes, the transfer window has opened.

Now, the current window on January 1st allowing clubs the opportunity to buy, sell, loan, trade and players from their squad. Though this is not the only window during the year, this particular time is interesting, as teams have to be very careful what they do with their money. a big name player may excite your but it does not always work, just ask West Ham after signing two Argentinian World Cup stars, Mascherano and Tevez in, as you know, there is much more to it than that.
