

English for Football – week 12

Kick It Out

This week's English For Football is the expression Kick It Out, which is a phrasal verb that means to eliminate, to get rid of or to finally stop something. Here the pronoun it represents racism, which of course means discrimination against people of different colour. So, this expression is now being used by an anti-racism in football organisation for its slogan. The Kick It Out campaign has been battling to eliminate (kick out) racism from football for the past fifteen years in the UK. Kick It Out.
