

Podcast 30 / 2008-9 Worksheet

Bayern Munich and the Bundesliga

(March 14 2009)

A. Listening for Detail and Comprehension

Listen to the first half of the report and fill in the gaps with the appropriate word or phrase. Then, write the meaning of the word or phrase. (Each line = 1 word)

Hans: Good thanks. How are you?

Damon: I'm very well indeed thank you. So you're our German expert...

Hans: Absolutely

Damon: What's the (1) _____ in German after Bayern Munich's fantastic win this week in the Champions league?

Hans: You of course, you're referring to the 7-1 (2) _____ of Sporting Lisbon.

Damon: That's the one.

Hans: Um kind of (3) _____ that the result was so easy. But then following on from the 5-0 in Portugal, I guess people were (4) _____ a fairly easy game. Klinsmann actually put out a couple of reserve players. So... but still surprise. It was a simple game for them, an a easy victory.

Damon: So do you think this means that they could go on and (5) _____ the trophy and also who do you think they fear in the draw next week?

Hans: Good questions both of them. I would like to think they could win the Champions League, but I (6) _____ every team has a good chance right now. So the team's they might fear? Manchester United are playing (7) _____ at the moment, Barcelona are strong. Well any of the English teams at the moment. So, I think any team has a chance at this so Bayern does too.

1.

4.

7.

2.

5.

3.

6.

B. Listening for Comprehension

Listen to the second half of the report. Answer the comprehension questions

1. What did everyone think at the start of the Bundesliga?
2. How have Bayern Munich been playing recently?
3. How would the neutrals feel if Bayern didn't win the Bundesliga?
4. What affair in Hoffenheim has been a big story recently?
5. Who does think will be European Champions in May?
6. Does he want them to be Champions? Explain your answer.

Podcast 30 / 2008-9 Answers

Bayern Munich and the Bundesliga

(March 14 2009)

A. Listening for Detail and Comprehension

Listen to the first half of the report and fill in the gaps with the appropriate word or phrase. Then, write the meaning of the word or phrase. (Each line = 1 word)

Hans: Good thanks. How are you?

Damon: I'm very well indeed thank you. So you're our German expert...

Hans: Absolutely

Damon: What's the (1) response in German after Bayern Munich's fantastic win this week in the Champions league?

Hans: You of course, you're referring to the 7-1 (2) thrashing of Sporting Lisbon.

Damon: That's the one.

Hans: Um kind of (3) shocked that the result was so easy. But then following on from the 5-0 in Portugal, I guess people were (4) expecting a fairly easy game. Klinsmann actually put out a couple of reserve players. So... but still surprise. It was a simple game for them, an a easy victory.

Damon: So do you think this means that they could go on and (5) lift the trophy and also who do you think they fear in the draw next week?

Hans: Good questions both of them. I would like to think they could win the Champions League, but I (6) guess every team has a good chance right now. So the team's they might fear? Manchester United are playing (7) beautifully at the moment, Barcelona are strong. Well any of the English teams at the moment. So, I think any team has a chance at this so Bayern does too.

1. reaction

3. very surprised

5. win

2. hammering, beating by a

4. waiting for, thinking

6. think

big score

something will happen

7. attractive

B. Listening for Comprehension

Listen to the second half of the report. Answer the comprehension questions

1. What did everyone think at the start of the Bundesliga?

That Bayern would easily win the Bundesliga

2. How have Bayern Munich been playing recently?

They've been playing very badly - losing games home and away

3. How would the neutrals feel if Bayern didn't win the Bundesliga?

They would be delighted, very happy

4. What affair in Hoffenheim has been a big story recently?

A doping affair

5. Who does think will be European Champions in May?

Manchester United

6. Does he want them to be Champions? Explain your answer.

No. He says, 'I hate to say it'

Podcast 30 / 2008-9 Transcript

Bayern Munich and the Bundesliga

(March 14 2009)

Damon: Hi Hans's, how are you doing?

Hans: Good thanks. How are you?

Damon: I'm very well indeed thank you. So you're our German expert...

Hans: Absolutely

Damon: What's the response in German after Bayern Munich's fantastic win this week in the Champions league?

Hans: You of course, you're referring to the 7-1 thrashing o Sporting Lisbon.

Damon: That's the one.

Hans: Um kind of shocked that the result was so easy. But then following on from the 5-0 in Portugal, I guess people were expecting a fairly easy game. Klinsmann actually put out a couple of reserve players. So... but still surprise. It was a simple game for them, an a easy victory.

Damon: So do you think this means that they could go on and lift the trophy and also who do you think they fear in the draw next week?

Hans: Good questions both of them. I would like to think they could win the Champions League, but I guess every team has a good chance right now. So the team's they might fear? Manchester United are playing beautifully at the moment, Barcelona are strong. Well any of the English teams at the moment. So, I think any team has a chance at this stage so Bayern does too.

Damon: OK. And at the beginning of the league, in the Bundesliga, everyone thought they would sweep everyone and win comfortably, and it's a tight race at the top at the moment. What do you think are they going to push on from here and get the Championship?

Hans: Well they're still in touch and they've been playing really badly. They've been losing games at home and away, so they have got a chance. But, at the moment Berlin are 4 points clear at the top, so Berlin, very unfashionable team... I think the neutrals in Germany would be delighted if Bayern didn't win and a team like Berlin did.

Damon: Any other interesting news out of the Bundesliga?

Hans: As always the relegation battle is fantastic. The story of Hoffenheim has been wonderful. And they're still up at the top, still in touch... they've been drawing their games recently. But the doping affair, at Hoffenheim actually, has caught the attention of a lot of people around the world. No result there yet, but it's not a pretty story I think.

Damon: And finally who is going to be the European Champion come May in Rome?

Hans: I hate to say it but Manchester United.